Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was agreed to if an agreement was reached, or any other comments: During the interview the applicant's representative expressed concerns regarding the use of Williams (US 2002/0049631) throughout the prosecution history. Examiner clarified his position. Specifically, Examiner pointed out that under the "broadest reasonable interpretation", the following limitations: "determining a benefit", and "determining a price for said benefit", as recited in claim 1, are disclosed in Williams in [0013]; [0020] and [0038] paragraphs. Possible changes to the claim were discussed to further clarify the invention and distinguish it from the teachings of the prior art. .
